Innocent Hearts provides a nurturing and conducive environment where young children develop a lifelong passion for learning through hands-on experiences. We foster opportunities for a strong foundation in academics, moral values, and essential life skills, while also nurturing social-emotional growth.

Our play-based, exploratory approach, extending beyond the classroom walls, connects our students with nature and cultivates qualities like confidence, curiosity, empathy, and a strong moral compass, preparing them for success in school and in life.

Holistic Development

Innocent Hearts is committed to the comprehensive development of each child, fostering intellectual, physical, and emotional well-being.

Our modules under the curriculum provide a smooth blend of academics, creative expression, play, and social connection, empowering children to become confident, inquisitive, and balanced individuals. Each activity is thoughtfully planned and designed to contribute to their overall growth and a sense of well-being.

Active and engaging involvement through playful and binding kinesthetic activities help young children begin developing essential LINGUISTIC AND NUMERACY SKILLS.

Interactive stories, rhymes, games, and practical exercises introduce them to letters, numbers, and colours. This fosters clear communication, sound and letter recognition, and vocabulary growth. At the same time, children explore fundamental mathematical concepts like counting, patterns, and shapes in an engaging manner, building a solid base for future academic success.
